

Feedback and Suggestions for Improvement

At HomePlace, we deeply value what the people we support and their families think about the support we provide. Our top priority is delivering high-quality, person-centred support that not only meets each person's needs and expectations, but also exceeds NDIS Practice Standards.

We know we won't always get everything right—and when that happens, we want to hear about it. That's why we have a clear Feedback and Suggestions for Improvement pathway, so you can tell us how we can improve.
